GENERAL

1. To recognize a member's service to the Military Police at the time of release or retirement from the Canadian Armed Forces (CAF), members of the Canadian Military Police Association (CMPA), whose membership is in good standing, may receive a Departure Gift to commemorate their service. Some restrictions apply.

TYPES OF DEPARTURE GIFTS

2. CMPA members of the Regular and Reserve Force, who were entitled to MP credentials during their military career, and who release or retire, may be presented with the CMPA Departure Gift of the following design:

- a. the CMPA Departure Gift will be in the form of a wooden shadow box;
- b. the member's original MP badge may be mounted inside the shadow box. Where the original badge is not available, a replica will be used in its place and will be inscribed "Retired" or "Veteran" in place of a badge number, depending on whether the member is in receipt of an annuity;
- c. if more than one badge number was issued to the member, the departure gift will contain only the most recent MP Badge; and
- d. an appropriate inscription that includes the member's name and initials, rank (at time of release/retirement) Post Nominals and range of service (e.g. 1989 – 2017).

3. CMPA members who are part of the Reserve Force but who were not issued MP credentials during their military career will be provided with an appropriate departure gift on release or retirement. The design and selection of the Reserve Departure Gift will be at the discretion of the CMPA Executive Committee.

4. Associate members of the CMPA, who are civilian employees of the Canadian Public Service, may be provided with an appropriate departure gift on retirement from the public service. The determination of whether an Associate Member will be awarded with a Departure Gift will be at the discretion of the CMPA Executive Committee. The design and selection of the Associate Member Departure Gift will be at the discretion of the CMPA Executive Committee.

The design and selection of the Honorary Member Departure Gift will be at the discretion of the CMPA Executive Committee.

DEPARTURE GIFT ELLIGIBILITY

6. To qualify for a CMPA Departure Gift, a member must satisfy all the following criteria:
- a. must have been a member of the Military Police Branch who graduated from either a MP QL3 or MPOC course and received MP credentials;
 - b. have been honourably released from the Canadian Armed Forces;
 - c. be a Lifetime Member of the CMPA in good standing.; and
(For more information about CMPA membership see By Law 1 – Membership);
 - d. at the time of release/retiring, the member's credentials must not be suspended or in the process of being suspended. If suspended, the matter shall be referred to the suspension authority by the member's chain of command for permission to release the badge to the CMPA

ERROR IN GIFT

7. Every attempt is made to ensure that the wording on the gift is correct. If a plaque or inscription is improperly worded by the CMPA, then the CMPA will replace the plaque at no cost to the member. If the error is attributed to the member incorrectly completing the requisition form, then a replacement plaque may be made at the retiring member's expense. Replacement plaques may be ordered through the CMPA MP Kit shop on line store.

GIFT PRESENTATION

8. The manner in which the gift is presented is to be determined by the member's Unit in consultation with the releasing/retiring member. Where possible, the presentation should be made a gathering of MP Branch and/or other professionals, preferably at a Mess Dinner or an awards ceremony. The event should be photographed and a short article on the ceremony provided to the Regional Director for the newsletter or website.

RELEASE – CANCELLED

16. If a member has cancelled/changed their release and the departure gift has been ordered but not yet received, immediately contact the CMPA Departure Gift Coordinator via email and advise them of the change so that the member's badge can be returned to the MP Credential Coordinator for subsequent return to the member and the Departure Gift process can be stopped.

17. If a Departure gift has been ordered and shipped (and perhaps even presented) the departure gift (even if presented) shall be returned to the CMPA Departure Gift Coordinator for holding and subsequent presentation to the member upon their ensuing release date. As the engraved dates of CF service will change, there will be an administration fee to cover the cost of the new plate. The fee will be established from time to time by the CMPA Executive. Payment for the replacement Name plate will be completed on line at the MP Kit shop.

18. If the Departure gift is not returned to the CMPA, the CMPA member will not be eligible for any further benefits or programs afforded to CMPA members or their dependants nor will another departure gift or plaque be presented to the member on their subsequent release.

19. If the Administrative Fee is not paid, a revised engraved plate will not be ordered, and the original departure gift with original dates will be sent back for presentation to the CMPA member on their subsequent release providing they still meet the criteria of para 6 above.

20. A refund (if paid) will not be issued to the member as the departure gift has been created.
